Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

The reasons people come before judges are as varied as the individuals themselves. I have been privileged to assist litigants, defendants, victims and witnesses through the often complex and intimidating courtroom experience. My social work and my legal practice has exposed me to diverse populations and I can communicate effectively with a broad spectrum of people.

Working in the public sector has given me the ability to prioritize a high volume of cases, and work efficiently and fairly to achieve just results. Building cases as a state prosecutor was challenging. Working with clients has given me tremendous insight and I'm a better lawyer because of it. Now, with the addition of my experience as a small business person, I see yet another challenge that private practitioners face with the demands of billing and the time it takes to maintain a business on top of a busy law practice.

I am in court almost every day, and believe I have solid skills and a good temperament to be a judge.

24. Please indicate whether you prefer to be interviewed in public session or in private session. Your choice of a public or private interview has no bearing on the Council's determination of your qualifications or on the questions the Council may ask. You may change your request in writing at any time before the interview starts.

The Council will use this space for your scanned picture. To be fair to all applicants, the Council will strictly enforce the 150 word limit.

Anchorage District Court

Please leave this area blank

Date: May 15, 2012

I was born in Ohio and raised in an Air Force family. I attended Miami University of Ohio. I practiced as a licensed social worker for St. Vincent de Paul in Dayton, Ohio assisting the local homeless population and victims of domestic violence. I was inspired by a group of pro bono attorneys and attended law school in Boston. After an Alaska Superior Court clerkship, I prosecuted local and rural crimes in Fairbanks for four years and learned to love the outdoors. I continued prosecuting sexual assaults in Anchorage (75+ trials). I then worked for OPA as a GAL in CINA cases, a defense attorney in delinquency and adult criminal cases, as well as handling guardianship and custody cases. I recently opened my own practice and that has proven to be a real challenge. I'm an outdoor enthusiast who loves to run, hike, fish and ski.
