ALASKA JUDICIAL COUNCIL

March 9, 2012

Alaska Judicial Council
1029 W. Third Avenue, Suite 201
Anchorage, AK 99501

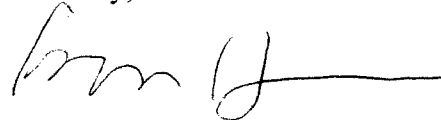

Dear Alaska Judicial Council Members,

I am writing to express my interest in applying for the vacancies on the Fairbanks Superior Court that were created by the forthcoming retirements of Judges Robert B. Downes and Randy M. Olsen. I am also writing to ask that my prior application for the Fairbanks District Court, which I submitted on July 22, 2011, be considered for these vacancies.

I recently contacted Larry Cohn regarding my interest in these positions. Mr. Cohn indicated that in order for my prior application to be considered for the current vacancies, I should make this written request of you. He further indicated that I should provide any supplemental responses to reflect changes or additions since my last application, and that I should provide a new Question 10 (as it has been amended to refer to career experience rather than just the past five years), more photos, and another biographical statement. Those items are included with this letter.

Thank you considering this request. Please let me know if there is anything more I should do to complete my application for these positions.

Cordially,

Bethany Harbison

Biographical Statement

Name Bethany Harbison

Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Fairbanks Superior Court

Please leave this area blank

Date: 3/9/12

After college, I lived and worked in China and then enrolled in law school. In 1993, I graduated from Harvard Law School and began working as a law clerk for the Superior Court in Fairbanks.

From 1995 to 2005, I worked as an attorney for the Public Defender Agency on felony and misdemeanor cases, CINA and juvenile delinquency cases, and appeals.

After working as a public defender, I returned to the court system where I am a standing master and magistrate. I hear a variety of cases, including domestic violence protective proceedings, domestic relations, probate, small claims, and criminal matters.

In the past, I taught criminal law for the University of Alaska and served on the Board of Directors for the Alaska Legal Services Corporation. Currently, I serve on the CINA/Delinquency Rules Committee and the Fairness, Diversity, Equality Committee.

I am involved in sports and community organizations.

Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Fairbanks District Court

Please leave this area blank

Date: July 21, 2011

After college, I lived and worked in China and then enrolled in law school. In 1993, I graduated from Harvard Law School and began working as a law clerk for the Superior Court in Fairbanks.

From 1995 to 2005, I worked as an attorney for the Public Defender Agency on felony and misdemeanor cases, CINA and juvenile delinquency cases, and appeals.

After working as a public defender, I returned to the court system where I am a magistrate and standing master. I hear a variety of cases, including domestic violence protective proceedings, probate, domestic relations, small claims and criminal matters.

In the past, I taught criminal law for the University of Alaska and served on the Board of Directors for the Alaska Legal Services Corporation. Currently, I serve on the CINA/Delinquency Rules Committee and the Fairness, Diversity and Access Committee.

I am involved in sports and community organizations.
