Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge Philip M. Pallenberg, Superior Court, Juneau

Judicial Council Recommendation 2010

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens' commission established by the Alaska constitution. Alaskan law requires the Council to evaluate judges' performance and authorizes the Council to recommend to voters whether judges should be retained in office. The Judicial Council reviews judges' integrity, diligence, legal ability, fairness, demeanor, ability to manage their caseloads, and overall performance of their judicial responsibilities in and out of the courtroom. The Judicial Council finds Judge Pallenberg to be Qualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote "YES" to retain him as a superior court judge.

Judicial Council Evaluation

The Judicial Council surveyed thousands of Alaskans including peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, social workers/guardians ad litem, and child advocates about the judges on the ballot. Respondents were asked to rate judicial performance and to submit comments. The Council also reviewed the ratings and observations of the Alaska Judicial Observers, independent community-based volunteers. The Council reviewed the judge's preemptory challenge, recusals, and appellate affirmance and reversal rates; any civil or criminal litigation involving the judge; APOC and court system conflict-of-interest statements; any disciplinary files involving the judge; and whether a judge's pay was withheld for an untimely decision. The Council reviewed other court records and investigated judicial conduct in specific cases. The Council interviewed some judges, attorneys, and court staff, and held a statewide public hearing to obtain comments about judges.

1. Please estimate your workload during your present term.

a) $\frac{49}{49}$ % civil cases $\frac{49}{49}$ % criminal cases $\frac{2}{100}$ % court administrative work 100 % Total	b) $\frac{5}{20}$ # of jury trials/year $\frac{20}{5}$ # of non-jury trials/year $\frac{5}{5}$ # of administrative appeals/year

2. Please describe your participation on court/bar committees or other administrative activities during your current term of office.

I am a member of the Alaska Criminal Pattern Jury Instructions Committee and the Steering Committee for the Russian-American Rule of Law Consortium, which helps to plan legal exchange programs involving lawyers and judges in the Russian Far East and Alaska. I was a member of the planning committee for the 2009 Alaska Bar Association convention and judicial conference in Juneau. I have participated extensively in planning for a therapeutic court in Juneau for dual diagnosis (mental health/substance abuse) defendants. I have taught continuing legal education programs on various topics through the Alaska Bar Association and the Juneau Bar Association.

3. Please assess, in one or two paragraphs, your judicial performance during your present term. Appropriate areas of comment could include: satisfaction with your judicial role, specific contributions to the judiciary or the field of law, increases in legal knowledge and judicial skills, or other measures of judicial abilities that you believe to be important.

Although the position is challenging and the workload is high, I derive a great deal of satisfaction from the work. I try hard to follow the law, to treat everyone who appears in court with respect and to explain my decisions in a way that is understandable to persons without legal training. One of the biggest challenges is to balance the need to handle a busy caseload efficiently with the need to take the time to give all parties a full and fair opportunity to be heard.

While justice, like beauty, is often in the eye of the beholder, I believe I have served the people of Southeast Alaska effectively as a Superior Court Judge, and I hope to continue to do so.

The Judicial Council's Evaluation Process

State law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge standing for retention, and to report its evaluations to the voters. The three surveys reported here are an important part of the Council's evaluations. The Council also considers survey ratings by jurors and court employees, public comments, and the ratings by the independent citizen volunteers at Alaska Judicial Observers. Along with the personal observations of the hundreds of people who had direct professional experience with the judge, the Council reviews any litigation involving the judge, conflict of interest records, public disciplinary files, and indicators of judicial performance such as appellate affirmances and reversals, and peremptory challenges and recusals. All of the evaluation information about the judge is on the Council's website at www.ajc.state.ak.us.
