Alaska Superior Court, Anchorage

I have practiced law in Alaska for 26 years. I started at Perkins Coie in 1985 after graduating cum laude from Willamette Law School. My plan was to work in Alaska for 2-3 years and then return to the Pacific Northwest. But Alaska grows on you. I fell in love with Alaska and its people. After 9 years I moved to my current firm. I have been here now for 16 years.

My cases have involved contract, tort, survival, wrongful death, statutory, employment, overtime, tax, civil rights, discrimination, constitutional, regulatory, business dissolution, corporate disregard, professional and medical malpractice, aviation, and real estate law issues. I have worked on cases throughout Alaska, from Southeast (Ketchikan, Sitka, Juneau, Kake), to South Central (Anchorage, Kenai, Palmer), to the interior (Fairbanks) and rural regions (Bethel, Nome, Kotzebue, Barrow).

I speak Spanish. I have 4 children, including a son soon to be practicing law.
