I received my B.A. degree in psychology from Florida International University in Miami, Florida with High Honors. After graduation, I became a social worker before beginning law school in 1994. In 1997, I graduated from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, subsequently practicing in Ohio for six years before moving to Alaska in 2004. In Alaska, I've worked for the Public Defender Agency in four locations--Bethel, Barrow, Kotzebue and Nome, and traveled to numerous villages.

In my spare time I enjoy photography, travel, archaeology, and hiking.
