Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Fairbanks District Court Judge

Date: 8/25/2011

I was born and raised in northern Minnesota. I attended the University of Minnesota School of Law 1976-1979. In 1979, I travelled on vacation to Alaska and never left. (It's warmer here than in Minnesota.) I have lived and have practiced law in Fairbanks ever since, raising my family here.

I am currently a Magistrate IV and have handled District Court matters in that capacity for 4+ years. My job has evolved over the last 4-5 years into "all of that" including DVROs, arraignments, change of pleas, sentencing, small claims, presumptive death, and most recently calendar call and I have been assigned to preside over jury trials. I have been a Standing Master for 20+ years. I was previously in private practice, was a Child Custody Investigator and worked for a Native Corporation. I believe I can better serve the Interior as District Court Judge and would appreciate this opportunity.
