Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Alaska Supreme Court

Date: January 23, 2012

Thirty-three year Alaska resident. Graduated from Ohio State with a B.A. in History in 1975 and a law degree in 1978. After clerking with the Ohio Board of Tax Appeals, moved to Anchorage and began working for Birch Horton Bittner & Cherot. Focussed on criminal, civil and appellate litigation. Later appointed partner in charge of associate training.

Resigned partnership in 1989 as part of a lifestyle change but remained "of counsel" and assisted on complex litigation. Moved to Homer in 1990 and have practiced here since. My practice runs the gamut: administrative and judicial appeals, general litigation, commercial, real estate, wills and probate.

Former hospital board president and current Homer Foundation trustee. Taught Civil Procedure at UAA and at the Homer campus. Sometime actor, director and playwright. Former speech & debate coach and youth court trainer. Backpacked around the world '82-83. Married for 24 years. Son at Seattle University.
