

Alaska Judicial Council

Application for Judicial Appointment

Instructions for Filling out Application in Adobe Reader

The following pages are the judicial application form in .pdf format. You can fill out this application online and print it directly from your computer. After you print out the application, please sign it in front of a notary, and send one single-sided, unbound copy to the Council with your photo. When filling out this form, please remember:

- The form can be filled out online and printed, and the Adobe Reader program may now allow you to save your copy as a file on your computer. However, you may not be able to save your work due to software incompatibility. If you close Adobe Reader or the application form, all the information you have entered may not be saved. It is very important that you print your application before you close. If you print each page as you complete it you will not have to reenter data if the program is accidentally closed and your information is not saved.
- There are three types of fields on the application: single line text fields, multi-line boxes and check boxes. The text fields and the multi-line boxes limit the number of characters that can be entered. If you need more space, please attach a separate labeled sheet to your application.
- Use the “tab” key to advance through fields. The “enter” key will insert a “return” in a multi-line box.
- To print your completed application form, use the green print button at the top of the first page of the application or the green print button on last page (certification and waiver page) of the application.

Application for Judicial Appointment Instructions

Please review these instructions before beginning your application.

A. Instructions for Using the Adobe Reader Fillable Form

1. You can fill out this application online and print it directly from your computer.
2. The Adobe Reader program may allow you to save your application as a file on your computer. However, software incompatibility prevents some users from being able to save their work in this manner. To avoid possible loss of data due to software incompatibility or malfunction, print your application before you close. It is safest to print each page as you complete it.
3. There are three types of fields on the application: single line text fields, multi-line boxes, and check boxes. The text fields and the multi-line boxes limit the number of characters that can be entered. If you need more space please attach a separate labeled sheet to your application.
4. Use the “tab” key to advance through the fields. The “enter” key will insert a “return” in a multi-line box.
5. Use the green print button at the top of the first page of the application or the green print button on the last page (certification and waiver page) to print your completed application form.

B. Instructions for Completing the Application

1. This application constitutes a public record within the meaning of AS 09.25.110 and AS 39.25.080. All information, except that specifically denoted as confidential herein (Sections II and III), is available for public inspection. The Council forwards Sections I and II of each nominee’s application to the governor.
2. The Judicial Council will consider this application only if it is completed in full. Please check to see that you have answered each question.
3. Please use the space provided for answers. If the space provided is insufficient, finish the answer on an appropriately numbered sheet or sheets attached to this form.
4. Please note that Question 21 asks for writing samples from closed cases only.
5. Please note that Question 25 asks you to prepare a brief biographical statement (limited to 150 words) about your background, legal education, and legal experience.

Please use the page provided for writing your statement. Please do not list personal information about minor children. A copy of this statement will be scanned and posted on the Council's website after the application deadline. Unless you object, we will post your picture as well. In its bar survey, the Council will invite attorneys to review the information if they wish to become more familiar with your background and experience.

6. Please submit a 2" x 2" photo of yourself with your application. If you wish to reuse a photo that was submitted with a prior application, let the Council's staff know.

7. You may submit your application either in person, by mail, or via email as follows:

In person: Submit one single-sided, unbound copy of your completed application, including your writing sample and photo, to the Council office by the application deadline.

By mail: Mail one single-sided, unbound copy of your completed application, including your writing sample and photo, to the Council office. Mailed applications must be received in our office by the application deadline.

Via email: Scan your completed application, including your writing sample, to .pdf, and email the file along with your digital photo, to postmaster@ajc.state.ak.us. Send the signed and notarized release pages (pages 22, 23, and 24 of this application) to the Council office via postal mail, or drop off in person. For this method only we need not receive the release pages by the application deadline day, provided that they are postmarked by the deadline day.

The Judicial Council's physical and mailing address is 510 L Street, Suite 450, Anchorage, AK 99501.

Once you have submitted your application, you will receive a description of the procedures and time frames the Council uses during its judicial selection process. Before then, the description of selection procedures may be downloaded from the Council's web site at www.ajc.state.ak.us or obtained by contacting the Council. Please call if you have any questions.

Writing Sample

21. Attach one example of a brief, memorandum of law, or legal opinion or similar example of legal writing (10-20 pages in length; 15-25 pages for appellate positions) prepared solely by you within the last five years. Please choose a sample that reflects your ability to do legal research and analysis. If you do not have a good sample of this length, include an excerpt from a longer writing. Make sure the sample contains sufficient facts to make it understandable. (Some reply briefs may not meet these requirements.)

Please do not submit: (a) coauthored writing samples, (b) samples with confidential information unless redacted to remove such information, (c) longer writing samples, (d) samples from open cases including cases on appeal.

22. Has any public sanction been imposed against you in response to a complaint, charge or grievance brought against you as an attorney or a judge? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Have formal grievance procedures been brought against you? ☐ Yes ☐ No

See Bar Rule 22(b) & (e) concerning public bar grievance procedures against attorneys, and AS 22.30.011(b) and .060(b)(3) concerning public disciplinary grievance procedures against judges.

Have you ever been held in contempt of court? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Have you ever been fined or otherwise sanctioned by a judge? ☐ Yes ☐ No

In each case, state in detail the circumstances and the outcome.

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

Additional Comments (Continued)

24. Please indicate whether you prefer to be interviewed in public session or in private session. Your choice of a public or private interview has no bearing on the Council's determination of your qualifications or on the questions the Council may ask. You may change your request in writing at any time before the interview starts (select one).

☐ Public Interview

☐ Private Interview

25. Please prepare a brief biographical statement (limited to 150 words) about your background, legal education, and legal experience. Please do not list personal information about minor children. Your picture and a copy of this statement will be scanned and posted on the Council's website after the application deadline. In its bar survey, the Council will invite attorneys to review the information if they wish to become more familiar with your background and experience. Use the form on the following page for your biographical statement. Please leave the box at the top empty. The Council will use this space for your scanned picture. To be fair to all applicants, the Council will strictly enforce the 150 word limit.

If you object to the posting of your picture on the Council's website, please indicate your objection below. If you object, we will not post your picture, although you still must submit a photograph of yourself with your application.

☐ If you check this box we will not post your picture on the website.
