RE: Fairbanks Superior Court and District Court Vacancies

Dear Member of the Alaska Bar Association:

The Alaska Judicial Council is seeking applicants for a vacancy on the Fairbanks Superior Court due to the forthcoming retirement of Judge Michael P. McConahy and a vacancy on the Fairbanks District Court due to the retirement of Judge Patrick S. Hammers. This is a re-announcement of the district court position. This letter includes detailed position descriptions that provide essential information about the positions. For more information, please contact the Alaska Judicial Council at 279-2526, or by e-mail at sdipietro@ajc.state.ak.us.

An application form for these positions may be obtained by writing or by calling the Alaska Judicial Council. Application forms may also be obtained online by visiting the Alaska Judicial Council's website: www.ajc.state.ak.us. Applicants may apply for both positions with one application by designating both positions on the application. Applicants who applied for the Fairbanks District Court in April 2020 must submit a new application, as some questions have changed.

Completed applications for these positions must be received by the Alaska Judicial Council no later than 3:00 p.m., October 30, 2020. Please note the special Covid-19 guidelines on the application instructions.

Sincerely,
