Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge David V. George, Superior Court, Sitka

Judicial Council Recommendation 2010

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens' commission established by the Alaska constitution. Alaskan law requires the Council to evaluate judges' performance and authorizes the Council to recommend to voters whether judges should be retained in office. The Judicial Council reviews judges' integrity, diligence, legal ability, fairness, demeanor, ability to manage their caseloads, and overall performance of their judicial responsibilities in and out of the courtroom. The Judicial Council finds Judge George to be Qualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote "YES" to retain him as a superior court judge.

Judicial Council Evaluation

The Judicial Council surveyed thousands of Alaskans including peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, social workers/guardians ad litem, and child advocates about the judges on the ballot. Respondents were asked to rate judicial performance and to submit comments. The Council also reviewed the ratings and observations of the Alaska Judicial Observers, independent community-based volunteers. The Council reviewed the judge's preemptory challenge, recusals, and appellate affirmance and reversal rates; any civil or criminal litigation involving the judge; APOC and court system conflict-of-interest statements; any disciplinary files involving the judge; and whether a judge's pay was withheld for an untimely decision. The Council reviewed other court records and investigated judicial conduct in specific cases. The Council interviewed some judges, attorneys, and court staff, and held a statewide public hearing to obtain comments about judges.

1. Please estimate your workload during your present term.

| 30 % criminal cases | 14 # of non-jury trials/year |

2. Please describe your participation on court/bar committees or other administrative activities during your current term of office.

Since I am new to the bench I deliberately chose not to engage in committee/admin activities for 2 years so I could focus on acquiring basic judicial skills. I intend to volunteer for committee work in 2010.

My first two years on the bench have been a wonderful learning experience. I truly did not appreciate the breadth of jurisprudence facing a superior court judge when I accepted this position. It has also been surprising to discover how much preparation is required before entering the courtroom for any particular case. Those are hours spent that most practitioners do not appreciate--I certainly didn't.

On a personal note I did not anticipate the emotional toll decisions affecting children, the family or parents exact. They truly are the most wrenching decisions I face.

I do think that my 30 years of private practice and the relationships I enjoyed with clients over the years has helped me understand the realities of the everyday life of the litigants who come before the court. I have found this helpful when trying to make real world decisions which people can understand and which have a minimum of unintended consequences.

Though the position requires long hours and weekend work, it remains eminently rewarding. It is public service at the highest level and the sacrifices required are well worth the effort.

I still have a lot to learn and will continue to work on areas of law that were relatively unfamiliar to me from my earlier private practice such as Child in Need of Aid matters. I also plan to undertake some form of committee, administrative or community work next year.

5. If your answer to any of the questions above is "yes," please give full details, including dates, facts, case numbers and outcomes.

* My professional corporation [Law Offices of David V. George, P.C.] is in a dispute with the I.R.S. over penalties. The I.R.S. is threatening to impose for 2005 and 2006. The I.R.S. asserts a penalty claiming that the W-2s for 2005 and 2006 were not set to Social Security. All taxes were however paid (even overpaid) for those two years. The penalties sought are for the corporation's alleged failure to send copies of the W-2s for the taxes paid to the Social Security system (W-3s). This proposed penalty is disputed by the corporation.

6. Please provide any other information which you believe would assist the Council in conducting its evaluations and in preparing its recommendations for the 2010 retention elections.

The Judicial Council's Evaluation Process

State law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge standing for retention, and to report its evaluations to the voters. The three surveys reported here are an important part of the Council's evaluations. The Council also considers survey ratings by jurors and court employees, public comments, and the ratings by the independent citizen volunteers at Alaska Judicial Observers. Along with the personal observations of the hundreds of people who had direct professional experience with the judge, the Council reviews any litigation involving the judge, conflict of interest records, public disciplinary files, and indicators of judicial performance such as appellate affirmances and reversals, and peremptory challenges and recusals. All of the evaluation information about the judge is on the Council's website at www.ajc.state.ak.us.
