

Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge Jane F. Kauvar, District Court, Fairbanks

I. Judicial Council Evaluation. The Alaska Judicial Council, a non-partisan citizens commission established by the Alaska Constitution, finds Judge Kauvar to be Qualified and recommends unanimously (6-0) that the public vote "YES" to retain her as a district court judge.

II. Summary of Evaluation Information. In a survey sent to all 2,604 attorneys in Alaska, Judge Kauvar was rated in the acceptable range on overall judicial performance (3.3, see graph). She scored highest in the categories of "conduct free from impropriety" (3.6) and "makes decisions without regard to possible public criticism" (3.6). She scored lowest, but still acceptable, in "works diligently" (3.1) and "talent and ability for cases involving children and families" (3.1).

A survey of all 1,338 peace and probation officers in Alaska rated Judge Kauvar in the good range on overall judicial performance (3.9, see graph). She scored highest in the category of "conduct free from impropriety" (4.1). She scored 3.8 or better in all thirteen categories.

A survey of all jurors appearing before Judge Kauvar in 1996 and 1997 rated her in the excellent range (4.7) on overall performance. A survey of all court employees rated her in the good range (3.7) on overall performance.

The Council also completed a background investigation including a court records check, a disciplinary records check, a review of conflict of interest statements submitted to the court system and a review of financial disclosure statements submitted to the Alaska Public Offices Commission. Attorneys, peace officers, court employees and jurors were asked to submit written comments about the judge. The Council actively encouraged the public to comment, both in writing and in a statewide public hearing teleconference.

Recommendation: Vote "YES" to retain Judge Kauvar
