A survey of all 1,338 peace and probation officers in Alaska rated Judge Jeffery in the good range on overall judicial performance (3.5, see graph). He scored highest in the categories of "courtesy" (3.8), "ability to control courtroom" (3.8) and "willingness to work diligently" (3.8). He scored lowest, but still acceptable, in "consideration of all relevant factors in sentencing" (3.2).

A survey of all jurors appearing before Judge Jeffery in 1996 and 1997 rated him in the range category (4.4) on overall performance. A survey of all court employees rated him in the excellent range (4.2) on overall performance.

The Council also completed a background investigation including a court records check, a disciplinary records check, a review of conflict of interest statements submitted to the court system and a review of financial disclosure statements submitted to the Alaska Public Offices Commission. Attorneys, peace officers, court employees and jurors were asked to submit written comments about the judge. The Council actively encouraged the public to comment, both in writing and in a statewide public hearing teleconference.

Recommendation: Vote "YES" to retain Judge Jeffery
