Please indicate whether you participate in the organization's activities, or simply hold a membership. Your involvement in the community is one of the criteria the Council uses in its evaluations. The Council does not use affiliation with a particular group as a criterion except to the extent that it might raise questions of conflict of interest or would affect an applicant's ability to impartially apply the law.

Until recently, I have been heavily involved in the development and operation of the nonprofit organization, Girls on the Run Serving Southcentral Alaska. Girls on the Run is a mentoring program that uses running as a vehicle to build strength and self-confidence in elementary school-aged girls. As Co-Founder of this local chapter of Girls on the Run, I was involved in all aspects of bringing the program to our community. I also coached for the program, working with small groups of third- through fifth-grade girls in local elementary schools, using a curriculum that focused upon helping girls to learn about and appreciate themselves, to build healthy relationships with peers, and to participate productively in their community. I served for some time as director of the Girls on the Run 5k, held every spring and fall. I have recently put my work with Girls on the Run on hold, after having my second child, but I hope to resume this work soon.

I am active in my children's schools/daycares, and am also a member of the Anchorage Running Club and U.S.A. Triathlon.

I was one of many defendants in a case brought by Andrew Walker in United States Bankruptcy Court in the Eastern District of Missouri. The case name was Andrew Walker v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company et al., Case No. 12-47852-399. Mr. Walker had previously been a plaintiff suing his landlords in Superior Court here in Anchorage, under various theories based on their failure to renew a lease agreement. While at Farley & Graves, P.C., I was one of the attorneys that defended Mr. Walker's landlords, and that case was dismissed on summary judgment. Shortly after that dismissal, and after I was appointed to the District Court, Mr. Walker filed the above-mentioned suit in the Bankruptcy Court. That bankruptcy matter was dismissed shortly after I was notified about it.

Writing Sample

21. Attach one example of a brief, memorandum of law, or legal opinion or similar example of legal writing (10-20 pages in length; 15-25 pages for appellate positions) prepared solely by you within the last five years. Please choose a sample that reflects your ability to do legal research and analysis. If you do not have a good sample of this length, include an excerpt from a longer writing. Make sure the sample contains sufficient facts to make it understandable. (Some reply briefs may not meet these requirements.)

Please do not submit: (a) coauthored writing samples, (b) samples with confidential information unless redacted to remove such information, (c) longer writing samples.

22. Has any public sanction been imposed against you in response to a complaint, charge or grievance brought against you as an attorney or a judge? Yes No
- Have formal grievance procedures been brought against you? Yes No
- See Bar Rule 22(b) & (e) concerning public bar grievance procedures against attorneys, and AS 22.30.011(b) and .060(b)(3) concerning public disciplinary grievance procedures against judges.
- Have you ever been held in contempt of court? Yes No
- Have you ever been fined or otherwise sanctioned by a judge? Yes No
- In each case, state in detail the circumstances and the outcome.

I have not been sanctioned; however, prior to becoming a judge, during 2012, I represented a client who was sanctioned $200.00 in relation to responses to requests for admission that were set forth in good faith, but deemed insufficient by the Court.

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I have had the privilege of serving as a District Court Judge for almost four years, following several years of practice in both civil and criminal law. As a District Court Judge, I have presided over all aspects of countless criminal, civil, and small claims matters. Part of my job as a judge is to continuously and efficiently educate myself about the law and to fairly apply the law to the facts before me. That ongoing process of learning, analyzing, and applying the law to a variety of cases has prepared me well for meeting the demands of the Superior Court.

Perhaps more importantly, though, I believe my time on the District Court has allowed me to develop an especially effective manner for approaching and addressing litigants' trust in and understanding of the court processes they are involved in. Throughout my time as a judge, I have focused on creating an environment in which the parties and lawyers understand and can rely upon the rules of the Court.

Whether in the context of a trial, a bail hearing, a change of plea, a contentious eviction hearing, a small claims trial with self-represented litigants, or a hearing in CRP court, I always address litigants with respect. If parties are new to the process or new to me, I explain the rules and why they are important for me to be able to make a fair decision. I explain how and when everyone will be heard. I explain what information is important to my decision and why. When I reach a decision, I explain how I have come to the decision and what that decision means. Adhering to this general framework allows me to diffuse tension quickly and to effectively correct or control violations of court rules or protocol when they arise. While I certainly cannot expect that all parties coming before me agree with the ultimate decisions I make, it is important to me that parties understand both what is happening in court and how I reach the decisions that I do regarding their claims or defenses.

I bring to my current work, and would bring to the position of Superior Court Judge, a deep respect for the rule of law, an ability to efficiently learn, analyze, and apply the law to a variety of cases, and a true commitment to helping litigants in our courtrooms to understand and ultimately trust in the law as well.

Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Anchorage Superior Court

Please leave this area blank

Date: December 9, 2016

I grew up in San Diego, California, and attended Claremont McKenna College, where I received my Bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy, and Economics. I then attended Yale Law School, where I combined my legal studies with a deep commitment to public service.

Following law school, I moved to Alaska to clerk for Justice Warren Matthews. After leaving Alaska for one year to clerk for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, I returned and worked as an Assistant District Attorney at the Anchorage DA's Office. I then transitioned into civil practice at Farley & Graves, P.C., defending clients against a wide variety of civil claims.

Four years ago, I was appointed to the Anchorage District Court, and I have presided over numerous criminal and civil matters in that time.

I am married and have two children.
