Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

My legal training and life experiences qualify me to serve as an Alaska District Court Judge. My legal career began in 2001 as a public defender in St. Paul, Minnesota, where I worked as a trial attorney for 4 years in a busy metropolitan office.

In 2006, I moved to Alaska after accepting a position as a trial lawyer with the Alaska Public Defender Agency in Bethel, AK. I visited Bethel previously and knew I wanted to return. My daughter and I lived in Bethel for 9 years, participating in community activities and immersing ourselves in the culture of rural Alaska. While there, I worked for the PDA as a trial lawyer and ultimately a supervising attorney. In addition to managing a full criminal caseload, I handled CINA and delinquency cases as well as conflict appointments from other judicial districts. A significant portion of my work was also dedicated to training new lawyers and supervising trials. In the face of a high volume and serious caseload, I worked hard to develop collegial professional relationships and create greater efficiencies in an over-burdened court.

I believe my reputation among colleagues and judges attests to my professionalism and achievements as both a litigator and a supervising attorney.

Currently, I am a Magistrate/Standing Master in the Anchorage Superior Court. I have been in this position since 2015, presiding over litigation and contested hearings in a variety of civil and criminal matters in both the District and Superior courts including: wills and estates, adoptions, guardianships, CINA matters, domestic relations cases, mental health commitments, protective order proceedings, bail hearings, search warrant requests and minor offense trials. I have also had the opportunity to travel to Naknek, AK on several cases to handle civil and criminal matters and currently I am responsible for the misdemeanor calendar in Unalaska. My experience as a litigator has served me well in my current position as I juggle the demands of high volume calendars.

I enjoy working in the trial court. The work is both challenging and rewarding. I appreciate the complexities of the litigation as well as the diversity of the parties. I am in the unique position of fully appreciating the demands of the Anchorage District Court, and having the skills to meet them. I believe I would be an asset to the Anchorage District Court bench.
