Additional information, item 16, page 8:

Since the early 1990s I have been extensively involved in bringing golf to Juneau, including Juneau's youth. I joined the Juneau Golf Club around 1989. The JGC was a non-profit organization with approximately 300 members at that time who lived both in and out of Alaska. I served on the JGC Board of Directors between approximately 1990 and 1997. While the Board did not have any standing committees, I did serve on the ad hoc Rules Committee, Finance Committee, Junior Golf Committee and Roadway Committee. I was also appointed as JGC's representative to deal with issues related to pull-tab proceeds which were the main source of revenue for the organization. The Juneau Golf club donated its net profits to the City and Borough of Juneau. Those monies were retained in a special city fund with a primarily purpose to develop a golf course and secondarily to promote outdoor recreational and sporting activities in Juneau. As best I recall, the dedicated fund reached almost $250,000 at one point. In 1996-1997 I became a board member of Totem Creek Inc. TCI was formed to actually prepare a site for golf course development. A section of city land on North Douglas Island was located, and Federal, State and local permitting undertaken to make way for a championship 18-hole golf course designed by architect Bill Robinson. Several years, over $300,000 and thousands of hours of volunteered time were spent permitting this project. The permitting difficulties became a poster child for then Senator Murkowski's campaign for governor. The TCI board members have each conservatively invested hundreds, if not thousands of hours of their time bringing this project to permit. TCI has since entered into a lease with the City for the property, and has signed a letter of intent with a developer in anticipation of developing the project. The board has no interest in the outcome of the project other than their love of golf and their intent to make Juneau a more liveable city.

- (d) had any proceedings brought to have you declared a ward of any court or adjudged an incompetent? Yes No

If your answer is "yes" to any part of this question, state the facts in detail. Give the name and place of the court or agency, dates of the beginning and end of any action or proceeding, case numbers, and the judgment or other disposition.

I believe I had a speeding ticket in the early or mid 80's in Juneau and the fine was around $50. It was something like 70 in a 55 mph zone on Egan Drive.

18. (a) Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state or local authorities? Yes No

In particular, have you been the subject of any proceeding, criminal or civil, initiated against you by the Internal Revenue Service or a State Tax Office? Yes No

If so, give particulars, including case numbers.

- (b) Have you ever been sued by a client? Yes No

If so, give particulars, including case numbers.

See attached.

- (c) Have you ever been a party in any other legal proceeding? Yes No

If so, give the particulars. Include all legal proceedings in which you were a party in interest, including petitioner or respondent in dissolution or divorce proceedings; a material witness; a named co-conspirator or correspondent; and subject or witness in any grand jury proceedings. Do not list proceedings in which you were sued only in a representative capacity (e.g. guardian ad litem, or as Commissioner of Natural Resources).

Divorced in Sacramento, CA in 1974.

Item 18(b), page 9:

McCutcheon v. George, Case No. 3AN-85-11310 Civ. I was appointed to represent defendant McCutcheon on felony assault charges. He discharged a weapon and the bullet came to rest under a baby's crib in the trailer next to the one in which he rented a room. I convinced the DA to offer a deferred prosecution for one year on condition McCutcheon leave his weapons with the police during that one year period and violate no laws. Pat Gullufsen was then DA here when the offer was made. McCutcheon thought I was selling him out, fired me, and eventually retained, or had Joe Josephsen appointed. In the meantime months went by, and the trailer owners who were present when the shooting occurred, moved back east somewhere and declined to come back for McCutcheon's delayed trial. The new DA dismissed the charges due to unavailability of their witness. McCutcheon sued me, he also sued the State and then acting DA Svobodny. As I recall, he sued me alleging ineffective assistance. He also sued the State and the DA alleging his case was unethically dismissed and that the affidavit accompanying the dismissal notice slandered him. I turned the case over to my E&O carrier and as I recall the case was dismissed on summary judgment. The suit against the State was also dismissed, and was the subject of an appeal. See, McCutcheon v. State, 746 P.2d 461 (Alaska 1987).

19. State the nature and disposition of any of the following actions which apply to you:

- (a) Are there any unsatisfied judgments against you? Yes No
Have you ever defaulted in the performance of any court-imposed obligation, including payment of alimony or child support or compliance with another court order or decree?

Yes No

In each case, list the name and address of the creditor, the court which rendered the judgment, the case number, the date, the amount of the judgment, and the circumstances on which such claim was based.

Has property owned by you been either judicially or non-judicially foreclosed?

Yes No

Please state the circumstances and outcome of any such unsatisfied or default judgment, or of any foreclosure.

- (b) Have you ever made an assignment for the benefit of creditors? Yes No

Have you ever filed any petition in bankruptcy?

Yes No

If so, state the circumstances, case number, and the outcome.

Information re "Case 2", page 12

I recently completed a jury trial in the case of Duncan v. Holland America Line, N.V., 1JU-05-426 Civ. The trial last almost two weeks. I represented the defendant in that case. A verdict was rendered and presently costs and fees are being argued.

Considering that the trial in the case is completed, I was not sure if that case fell within your proscription of "cases pending" as the substantive facts of the case have been decided by the jury's verdict.

I leave the applicability of this information to you. Should you wish to inquire, the Hon. Larry Weeks presided, plaintiff was represented by Marc June, 807 G. St., Suite 150, Anchorage, Alaska 99501. Assisting me at trial as co-counsel for the defense was Robert Bocko of Keesal, Young and Logan, Suite 1515, 1301 Fifth Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98101.

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I have been a practicing attorney for over 30 years. Almost all of that practice was in Juneau and southeast Alaska. I know southeast Alaska. In those 30 years I represented clients in civil, criminal and administrative settings. I represented both plaintiffs and defendants. My trials covered a broad range of subject matter including murder, wrongful death, divorce, personal injury and business suits. I have also learned that it is important that those who may come before the court be treated fairly and with respect. A litigant who is treated with respect in turn respects the those who pass judgment. That is true not only for winners, but also for those who lose. In the end, fairness is the most important quality a judge must embody. While any new judge has much to learn, I believe the length and diversity of my experience makes me well qualified for this appointment.

24. Please indicate whether you prefer to be interviewed in public session or in private session. Your choice of a public or private interview has no bearing on the Council's determination of your qualifications or on the questions the Council may ask. You may change your request in writing at any time before the interview starts.

I have been able to volunteer substantial time with TCI, a local non-profit recreational organization. I have met many wonderful Alaskan's in the last 30 years. I look forward to continuing to serve Alaska.
