

Alaska Judicial Council

Judicial Applicant Biographical Statement

Name: Erin White

Position(s): Anchorage District Court

Date: November 3, 2025

I have been a prosecutor in Anchorage since 2002 and have prosecuted cases in both State and Federal Courts. Prior to moving to Anchorage, I worked as an attorney in rural Alaska where I practiced civil and criminal defense law. My first job after law school was as an Army Judge Advocate, with one assignment at Fort Wainwright, Alaska. My family was military, and we lived all over the country. I attended college at Washington University in St. Louis and law School at the University of New Mexico. In my free time, I enjoy classes at Anchorage Yoga, working out, walking my dog and spending time with friends. It would be an honor to serve the community of Anchorage as a District Court Judge.