Alaska Judicial Council

Judicial Applicant Biographical Statement

Name: Ryan Bravo

Position(s): Anchorage Superior Court

Date: October 27, 2026

I moved to Alaska immediately after graduating from the University of Minnesota Law School. I first clerked in the Anchorage Superior Court before a short stint in private practice. From there I began my work as a public servant and have never looked back.

I started my time with the State as a line prosecutor, a criminal appellate attorney, and then a supervisor in the Anchorage District Attorney's Office. After five years in the criminal division, I moved to the civil division where I represented the Department of Education and Early Development for over two years. Currently I have the honor of serving as a supervisor and training coordinator in the Public Defender Agency.

In my free time I enjoy spending time with my wife, daughters, and our two dogs. I particularly enjoy camping, hiking, and cooking with my kids.
