Alaska Judicial Council

Judicial Applicant Biographical Statement

Name: Windy Hannaman

Position(s): Palmer Superior Court

Date: October 23, 2026

I came to Alaska when my father was in the Army. He retired and I spent my middle and high school years in Delta Junction.

I left for college and law school but returned after graduating. I clerked for the Anchorage Superior Court. From there, I worked at the DA's Office. I left the DA's Office in 2005 and went to the Office of Public Advocacy then the Public Defenders in 2011. At OPA and the PD's Office I learned about CINA, delinquency, probate and domestic relations law. This experience gave me the confidence to open my practice in 2019.

Being raised in a military family, I knew I wanted a place where I could put down roots and in 2009 Palmer became home. It's why I opted to open my practice and continue to work here.

I would be honored to serve this community as a Superior Court Judge.
